

MIDDLETOWN DAILY ARGUS.

VOL. XIX. No. 5,390. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1894. 30 CENTS PER MONTH. PRICE 2 CENTS.

BRECKINRIDGE SPEAKS

The Congressman Tells How He Was Led Astray

BY MISS MADELINE POLLARD.

The Acquaintance Was Forced on Him by the Plaintiff, and Their Subsequent Meetings Were Brought About at Her Solicitation.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—If an alien, uninitiated in the king's English, dropped into court yesterday afternoon he might have received the impression that the benevolent, brightly looking gentleman with ruddy face and waves of snowy hair and beard, who held the open mouthed attention of 200 men while he discoursed in slow, mellow tones, was preaching a sermon from the gospel of peace. The mistake would have been a natural one, but it would have been a mistake, for the elderly gentleman with the scriptural head was the silver tongued orator of Kentucky, Col. Breckinridge, who was telling to twelve of his peers, and incidentally to the world at large, the story of his intrigue with Madeline Pollard.

The colonel smiled occasionally as he spoke. Once he glanced down at the slender young woman in the first row of seats before him. That was what he was assuring the court that her mother towards him had been perfectly respectful and very different, but for the most part he addressed himself to his attorney, Major Ben Butterworth, who did the questioning. As for Madeline Pollard, she never took her eyes from his face. When Colonel Breckinridge was telling how he made her accept a ten dollar bill after their first interview she shut her lips tightly, and would have made a motion to rise but for the restraining words of Attorney Carlisle, who sat beside her.

The Kentucky congressman got no further in his story than the first meeting with Miss Pollard. He held that the young woman had forced him to her—had met him more than half way in their intimacy, and the ground of his excuse is found in his words: "I was a man with passion, she was a woman with passion. We were human."

The commotion which ensued when Colonel Breckinridge was called to the stand required all the efforts of the bailiffs to quiet it. After answering numberless questions as to his antecedents he was led up to his first meeting with Miss Pollard.

"When did you first meet her?" was asked.

"In the spring of 1884. It was a cool morning on a train between Lexington and Frankfort. She accosted me in a perfectly proper way. I said 'I suppose I ought to know you, but young people grow up so on us we forget their faces.' She said 'I am Madeline Breckinridge Pollard.' He said his father admitted my father, that if she had been a boy he would have named her John B. As it was, he gave her the middle name of Breckinridge. She said she was going to a sister, who was dying of consumption. I expressed my sympathy and patted her head.

"When did you next meet her?" "I do not remember exactly. I received a letter from her. I have told that letter, but the substance of it was a request that I would call on her at the college on some business of great importance to her. The substance of my reply was that it would be inconvenient for me to call at the college, but if I could give her any advice I would be glad to do so, and if she was in Lexington she might call.

Then he was asked if he had received another letter to which he answered affirmatively. Then the famous black bordered letter was passed up, and he identified it as the letter in question. When he stated Miss Pollard at the ceremony it was on a day that he happened to be in Lexington on business. After dinner, remembering the letter of Miss Pollard, he strolled up to the college.

"I sent my name up," he said, "and was invited to a room, and in a few moments the plaintiff came down. We shook hands. She said she supposed she had astonished me by the substance of her letter, that it was worse than a divorce case. We took seats, she on a divan, I on a chair, in the rear of the room. She narrated the circumstances under which she had made the agreement with Rhodes. I treated the matter with some lightness. I knew of no law in this day by which she could be compelled to the specific performance of a marriage contract. She grew grave looking as though she felt like trying to look out her handkerchief, but I put it to her face and I got up and walked the room. I started to leave after some expressions of sympathy, but she detained me. She said, the plaintiff did, it is much worse than that; it is much worse than that. He insisted on marrying me. I did not want to be like Aunt Lou with a house full of children and unable to educate them. I gave him a higher proof than that contract." Then I said she ought to marry him any way. She said, "I can't. I have grown away from him. I know what other men are, and his very presence is offensive to me." I replied, "You can't afford not to marry him, a young girl as you are."

"As I stood there with my hat in my hand, she said, 'I have a right to see you as an author.' I said, 'I don't see why you can't do that, but you must remember that this double life (there he assumed the stern tone of a moralist) may come up against you any time. He has you in his power. A young girl can't afford that. You should marry as soon as you can.' She said, 'I won't do that now, any way.'"

"Ladies and gentlemen suffer, 3 with throat and lung difficulties. Call at our drug store for a bottle of Otto's Cure, which we are distributing free of charge, and we can confidently recommend it as a superior remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption, and all the diseases of the throat and lungs. It will stop a cold quicker than any other known remedy. We will guarantee it to cure you. If your children have croup or whooping cough it is sure to give instant relief. Large sizes 50 and 25 cents. Sold by J. J. Chambers, West Main St.

Gilmore's Aromatic Wine.

A tonic for ladies. If you are suffering from weakness, and feel exhausted and nervous; are getting thin and all run down, Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will bring roses to your cheeks and restore you to flesh and plumpness. Mothers, use it for your daughters. It is the best regulator and corrector for all ailments peculiar to maidenhood. It promotes digestion, enriches the blood and gives lasting strength. Sold by all druggists for $100.

BREEZY TIME IN THE HOUSE

A Recurrence of the Exciting Days of the Fifty First Congress

WASHINGTON, March 30.—A recurrence of the exciting days of the Fifty-first Congress during the consideration of the contested election cases which led to Mr. Reed's famous rulings occurred in the house yesterday, by a strange coincidence, during the consideration of a contested election case. When it had been demonstrated that the Democrats had not enough members present to break the deadlock on the O'Neill-Joy case Mr. Patterson presented a resolution instructing the sergeant-at-arms to arrest absentees. A struggle followed which was prolonged after the usual hour of adjournment, and at one time threatened to keep the house in session all night. After the previous question was ordered the house was treated to the unusual spectacle of seeing the speaker take the floor for a speech. It was brief but full of spirit, and was largely an appeal to the Democrats to stand by the session and prevent the constantly recurring deadlocks. The prolonged filibuster aroused partisan feeling, and toward the close it broke forth in all its fury. The speaker decided to crush down the opposition by ruling all dilatory motions out of order. This he successfully did, and a chorus of protests, sharp words and at least one attempt to bring a member (Mr. Payne of New York) before the bar of the house for contempt. After the adoption of the Patterson resolution the excitement subsided, and by mutual agreement the house adjourned.

After many delays and disappointments the celebrated McGarran bill passed the senate yesterday. The morning hour was occupied in the discussion and passage of several bills of purely local interest, and the McGarran bill occupied the remainder of the session from 2 o'clock until the hour of adjournment. The senate went into executive session at 5:15, after which it adjourned until Monday, when Senator Harris introduced that the tariff bill would be taken up.

Big Strike of Miners Probable.

PITTSBURGH, March 30.—A delegate from the Coal Drivers' association, in the Clearfield coal region, had a conference with the superintendent of the leading company and demanded $1.75 per day of nine hours and free oil and cotton, as against $1.00 per day of ten hours. The drivers of the Beech Creek district have agreed to stand by the delegate, and the probability is that the coal in both regions will refuse to go to work next Monday, at which time the reduction goes into effect. In this event several thousand miners and mine laborers will be thrown out of work.

Big Strike in the Coke Region.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 30.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the new Mine Workers' association a circular was issued to the miners of the region, formally declaring a strike throughout the region to go into effect on Monday. An organization of the Hungarian element in the coke region is being perfected. Men are being discharged wholesale for joining the strikers. About 10,000 men will be involved. The Frook people do not expect their men to strike, as they have signed a scale for 1894.

Overpowered by Masked Robbers.

CLEVELAND, March 30.—Six robbers overpowered A. W. McNager, night telegraph operator and agent at Olmsted Falls station, on the Lake Shore railroad, a few miles west of this city, about midnight, and took his gold watch and money, then bound and gagged him and blew open the safe with powder. The amount secured is not known. People were awakened and pursued the robbers, who were captured and brought to this city. They bear the appearance of thugs.

Could Not Live Apart.

WASHINGTON, O., March 30.—Miss Sarah Billings and sister Linda, aged 35 and 40 years respectively, were found dead in bed. A note explained that their death was by poison, self-administered, because one of them was intending to get married but love for each other prevented them from enduring separation. They were well to do.

Charges Against the Government.

LIMA, O., March 30.—B. C. Paquet, late president of the Lima National bank, has created a sensation here by issuing a circular letter to the stockholders of the bank, accompanied by a tabulated statement to back up his charges, that he is unable to get an accounting from the government for nearly $90,000.

Permanently Bona Lookwood.

RICHMOND, Va., March 30.—Belva Lookwood made her main effort to practice law in Virginia yesterday. She applied to the supreme court. Two judges were for the affirmative, one for the negative. Richardson, the fifth judge, is sick. Belva considered this a victory, and will apply again when the sick judge recovers.

Big Excitement in Town.

Over the remarkable cures by the grandest specific of the age, Bacon's Celery King, which acts as a natural laxative, stimulates the digestive organs, regulates the liver and kidneys and is nature's great healer and health renewer.

If you have Kidney, Liver and Blood Disorders do not delay, but call at J. J. Chambers' drug store for a free trial package. Large sizes 50 and 25 cents.

Some Foolish Mothers.

Let their babies cry with Colic, giving mother no rest night or day. How foolish, when Dr. Hand's Colic Cure gives immediate relief to baby. It removes wind from the stomach, quiets the nerves and gives restful sleep. Mother, send to day to your drug store for a 25c. bottle. Think of the weary hours it saves you. If baby's gums are sore, teething, use Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion. At all druggists, 25 cents.

The best Blood Purifier—McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

BLAND BILL VETOED.

The President Declares It Inadvisable and Dangerous.

FAULTY IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

Nearly Every Sentence, He Says, Presents Uncertainty and Invites Controversy as to Its Meaning and Intent—More Power to Issue Bonds Urged.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president yesterday vetoed the house of representatives measure vetoing the Bland silver seigniorage bill. After referring at length to existing financial depression and the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law he proceeded in part as follows:

I believe that the bill under consideration should become a law it would be regarded as a retrogression from the financial intentions indicated by our recent purchases, that it would weaken if it did not destroy returning faith and confidence in our sound financial tendencies, and that, as a consequence, our progress to renewed business health would be unfortunately checked and a return to our recent distressed plight seriously threatened.

Considering the present intrinsic relation between gold and silver, the maintenance of the parity between the two metals as mentioned in this law can mean nothing less than the maintenance of such a parity in the estimation and confidence of the people who use our money in their daily transactions.

Manifestly the maintenance of this parity can only be accomplished, so far as it is affected by these treasury notes and in the estimation of the holders of the same, by giving to such holders, on their redemption, the coin, whether it is gold or silver, which they prefer.

It follows that while in terms the law leaves the choice of coin to be paid on such redemption to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, the exercise of this discretion, if opposed to the demands of the holder, is entirely inconsistent with the effective and beneficial maintenance of the parity between the two metals.

If both gold and silver are to serve us for money, and if they together are to supply to our people a safe and stable currency, the necessity for preserving this parity is obvious. Such necessity has been repeatedly conceded in the platforms of both political parties and in our federal statutes.

The law insists upon the "maintenance of the parity in value of the coin of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts."

The secretary of the treasury has, therefore, for the best of reasons, not only promptly complied with every demand for the redemption of these treasury notes in gold, but the present situation, as well as the letter and spirit of the law, appear plainly to justify, if they do not enjoin upon him, a continuance of such redemption.

The entire bill is most unfortunately constructed. Nearly every sentence presents uncertainty, and invites controversy as to its meaning and intent. The first section is especially faulty in this respect, and it is extremely doubtful whether its language will permit the consummation of its supposed purposes.

I am convinced that the promoters of the bill intended in this section to provide for the coinage of the bullion constituting the gain of seigniorage, as it is called into standard silver dollars, and yet there is positively nothing in the section to prevent its coinage into any description of silver coins now authorized under any existing law.

Doubts also arise as to the meaning and construction of the second section of the bill. If the silver dollars therein directed to be coined are, as the section provides, to be held in the treasury for the redemption of treasury notes, it is suggested that, strictly speaking, certificates cannot be issued on such coin in the manner now provided by law, because these dollars are money held in the treasury for the express purpose of redeeming treasury notes, on demand, which would ordinarily mean that they were set apart for the purpose of substituting them for the treasury notes.

I am convinced that this scheme is ill advised and dangerous. As an ultimate result of its operations treasury notes, which are legal tender for all debts, public and private, and which are redeemable in gold or silver, at the option of the holder, will be replaced by silver certificates, which, whatever may be their character and description, will have none of these qualities.

We have now outstanding more than $35,000,000 of silver certificates issued under existing laws. They are serving the purpose of money usefully and without question. Our gold reserve, amounting to only a little more than $100,000,000, is directly charged with the redemption of $346,000,000 of United States notes.

When it is proposed to inflate our silver currency it is thus for strengthening our gold reserve, instead of depleting it.

I cannot conceive of a longer step towards silver money than we take when we spend our gold to buy silver certificates for circulation, especially in view of the practical difficulties surrounding the redemption of our gold.

This leads me to earnestly present the desirability of granting to the secretary of the treasury the power to now exist to issue bonds to protect our gold reserve when, for any reason, it should be necessary.

Our currency is in such a confused condition, and our financial affairs are so unsettled at any time so critical a position that it seems to me such a course is dictated by ordinary prudence.

I am not in-entitled to the arguments in favor of coining the bullion silver coins; now in the treasury, and I believe it could be done safely and with advantage, if the secretary of the treasury had the power to issue bonds at a low rate of interest under authority in substitution of that now existing and better suited to the protection of the treasury.

I hope a way will present itself in the near future for the adjustment of our

BLAND BILL VETOED.

The President Declares It Inadvisable and Dangerous.

FAULTY IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

Nearly Every Sentence, He Says, Presents Uncertainty and Invites Controversy as to Its Meaning and Intent—More Power to Issue Bonds Urged.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president yesterday vetoed the house of representatives measure vetoing the Bland silver seigniorage bill. After referring at length to existing financial depression and the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law he proceeded in part as follows:

I believe that the bill under consideration should become a law it would be regarded as a retrogression from the financial intentions indicated by our recent purchases, that it would weaken if it did not destroy returning faith and confidence in our sound financial tendencies, and that, as a consequence, our progress to renewed business health would be unfortunately checked and a return to our recent distressed plight seriously threatened.

Considering the present intrinsic relation between gold and silver, the maintenance of the parity between the two metals as mentioned in this law can mean nothing less than the maintenance of such a parity in the estimation and confidence of the people who use our money in their daily transactions.

Manifestly the maintenance of this parity can only be accomplished, so far as it is affected by these treasury notes and in the estimation of the holders of the same, by giving to such holders, on their redemption, the coin, whether it is gold or silver, which they prefer.

It follows that while in terms the law leaves the choice of coin to be paid on such redemption to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, the exercise of this discretion, if opposed to the demands of the holder, is entirely inconsistent with the effective and beneficial maintenance of the parity between the two metals.

If both gold and silver are to serve us for money, and if they together are to supply to our people a safe and stable currency, the necessity for preserving this parity is obvious. Such necessity has been repeatedly conceded in the platforms of both political parties and in our federal statutes.

The law insists upon the "maintenance of the parity in value of the coin of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts."

The secretary of the treasury has, therefore, for the best of reasons, not only promptly complied with every demand for the redemption of these treasury notes in gold, but the present situation, as well as the letter and spirit of the law, appear plainly to justify, if they do not enjoin upon him, a continuance of such redemption.

The entire bill is most unfortunately constructed. Nearly every sentence presents uncertainty, and invites controversy as to its meaning and intent. The first section is especially faulty in this respect, and it is extremely doubtful whether its language will permit the consummation of its supposed purposes.

I am convinced that the promoters of the bill intended in this section to provide for the coinage of the bullion constituting the gain of seigniorage, as it is called into standard silver dollars, and yet there is positively nothing in the section to prevent its coinage into any description of silver coins now authorized under any existing law.

Doubts also arise as to the meaning and construction of the second section of the bill. If the silver dollars therein directed to be coined are, as the section provides, to be held in the treasury for the redemption of treasury notes, it is suggested that, strictly speaking, certificates cannot be issued on such coin in the manner now provided by law, because these dollars are money held in the treasury for the express purpose of redeeming treasury notes, on demand, which would ordinarily mean that they were set apart for the purpose of substituting them for the treasury notes.

I am convinced that this scheme is ill advised and dangerous. As an ultimate result of its operations treasury notes, which are legal tender for all debts, public and private, and which are redeemable in gold or silver, at the option of the holder, will be replaced by silver certificates, which, whatever may be their character and description, will have none of these qualities.

We have now outstanding more than $35,000,000 of silver certificates issued under existing laws. They are serving the purpose of money usefully and without question. Our gold reserve, amounting to only a little more than $100,000,000, is directly charged with the redemption of $346,000,000 of United States notes.

When it is proposed to inflate our silver currency it is thus for strengthening our gold reserve, instead of depleting it.

I cannot conceive of a longer step towards silver money than we take when we spend our gold to buy silver certificates for circulation, especially in view of the practical difficulties surrounding the redemption of our gold.

This leads me to earnestly present the desirability of granting to the secretary of the treasury the power to now exist to issue bonds to protect our gold reserve when, for any reason, it should be necessary.

Our currency is in such a confused condition, and our financial affairs are so unsettled at any time so critical a position that it seems to me such a course is dictated by ordinary prudence.

I am not in-entitled to the arguments in favor of coining the bullion silver coins; now in the treasury, and I believe it could be done safely and with advantage, if the secretary of the treasury had the power to issue bonds at a low rate of interest under authority in substitution of that now existing and better suited to the protection of the treasury.

I hope a way will present itself in the near future for the adjustment of our

BLAND BILL VETOED.

The President Declares It Inadvisable and Dangerous.

FAULTY IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

Nearly Every Sentence, He Says, Presents Uncertainty and Invites Controversy as to Its Meaning and Intent—More Power to Issue Bonds Urged.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president yesterday vetoed the house of representatives measure vetoing the Bland silver seigniorage bill. After referring at length to existing financial depression and the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law he proceeded in part as follows:

I believe that the bill under consideration should become a law it would be regarded as a retrogression from the financial intentions indicated by our recent purchases, that it would weaken if it did not destroy returning faith and confidence in our sound financial tendencies, and that, as a consequence, our progress to renewed business health would be unfortunately checked and a return to our recent distressed plight seriously threatened.

Considering the present intrinsic relation between gold and silver, the maintenance of the parity between the two metals as mentioned in this law can mean nothing less than the maintenance of such a parity in the estimation and confidence of the people who use our money in their daily transactions.

Manifestly the maintenance of this parity can only be accomplished, so far as it is affected by these treasury notes and in the estimation of the holders of the same, by giving to such holders, on their redemption, the coin, whether it is gold or silver, which they prefer.

It follows that while in terms the law leaves the choice of coin to be paid on such redemption to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, the exercise of this discretion, if opposed to the demands of the holder, is entirely inconsistent with the effective and beneficial maintenance of the parity between the two metals.

If both gold and silver are to serve us for money, and if they together are to supply to our people a safe and stable currency, the necessity for preserving this parity is obvious. Such necessity has been repeatedly conceded in the platforms of both political parties and in our federal statutes.

The law insists upon the "maintenance of the parity in value of the coin of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts."

The secretary of the treasury has, therefore, for the best of reasons, not only promptly complied with every demand for the redemption of these treasury notes in gold, but the present situation, as well as the letter and spirit of the law, appear plainly to justify, if they do not enjoin upon him, a continuance of such redemption.

The entire bill is most unfortunately constructed. Nearly every sentence presents uncertainty, and invites controversy as to its meaning and intent. The first section is especially faulty in this respect, and it is extremely doubtful whether its language will permit the consummation of its supposed purposes.

I am convinced that the promoters of the bill intended in this section to provide for the coinage of the bullion constituting the gain of seigniorage, as it is called into standard silver dollars, and yet there is positively nothing in the section to prevent its coinage into any description of silver coins now authorized under any existing law.

Doubts also arise as to the meaning and construction of the second section of the bill. If the silver dollars therein directed to be coined are, as the section provides, to be held in the treasury for the redemption of treasury notes, it is suggested that, strictly speaking, certificates cannot be issued on such coin in the manner now provided by law, because these dollars are money held in the treasury for the express purpose of redeeming treasury notes, on demand, which would ordinarily mean that they were set apart for the purpose of substituting them for the treasury notes.

I am convinced that this scheme is ill advised and dangerous. As an ultimate result of its operations treasury notes, which are legal tender for all debts, public and private, and which are redeemable in gold or silver, at the option of the holder, will be replaced by silver certificates, which, whatever may be their character and description, will have none of these qualities.

We have now outstanding more than $35,000,000 of silver certificates issued under existing laws. They are serving the purpose of money usefully and without question. Our gold reserve, amounting to only a little more than $100,000,000, is directly charged with the redemption of $346,000,000 of United States notes.

When it is proposed to inflate our silver currency it is thus for strengthening our gold reserve, instead of depleting it.

I cannot conceive of a longer step towards silver money than we take when we spend our gold to buy silver certificates for circulation, especially in view of the practical difficulties surrounding the redemption of our gold.

This leads me to earnestly present the desirability of granting to the secretary of the treasury the power to now exist to issue bonds to protect our gold reserve when, for any reason, it should be necessary.

Our currency is in such a confused condition, and our financial affairs are so unsettled at any time so critical a position that it seems to me such a course is dictated by ordinary prudence.

I am not in-entitled to the arguments in favor of coining the bullion silver coins; now in the treasury, and I believe it could be done safely and with advantage, if the secretary of the treasury had the power to issue bonds at a low rate of interest under authority in substitution of that now existing and better suited to the protection of the treasury.

I hope a way will present itself in the near future for the adjustment of our

BLAND BILL VETOED.

The President Declares It Inadvisable and Dangerous.

FAULTY IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

Nearly Every Sentence, He Says, Presents Uncertainty and Invites Controversy as to Its Meaning and Intent—More Power to Issue Bonds Urged.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president yesterday vetoed the house of representatives measure vetoing the Bland silver seigniorage bill. After referring at length to existing financial depression and the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase law he proceeded in part as follows:

I believe that the bill under consideration should become a law it would be regarded as a retrogression from the financial intentions indicated by our recent purchases, that it would weaken if it did not destroy returning faith and confidence in our sound financial tendencies, and that, as a consequence, our progress to renewed business health would be unfortunately checked and a return to our recent distressed plight seriously threatened.

Considering the present intrinsic relation between gold and silver, the maintenance of the parity between the two metals as mentioned in this law can mean nothing less than the maintenance of such a parity in the estimation and confidence of the people who use our money in their daily transactions.

Manifestly the maintenance of this parity can only be accomplished, so far as it is affected by these treasury notes and in the estimation of the holders of the same, by giving to such holders, on their redemption, the coin, whether it is gold or silver, which they prefer.

It follows that while in terms the law leaves the choice of coin to be paid on such redemption to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, the exercise of this discretion, if opposed to the demands of the holder, is entirely inconsistent with the effective and beneficial maintenance of the parity between the two metals.

If both gold and silver are to serve us for money, and if they together are to supply to our people a safe and stable currency, the necessity for preserving this parity is obvious. Such necessity has been repeatedly conceded in the platforms of both political parties and in our federal statutes.

The law insists upon the "maintenance of the parity in value of the coin of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts."

The secretary of the treasury has, therefore, for the best of reasons, not only promptly complied with every demand for the redemption of these treasury notes in gold, but the present situation, as well as the letter and spirit of the law, appear plainly to justify, if they do not enjoin upon him, a continuance of such redemption.

The entire bill is most unfortunately constructed. Nearly every sentence presents uncertainty, and invites controversy as to its meaning and intent. The first section is especially faulty in this respect, and it is extremely doubtful whether its language will permit the consummation of its supposed purposes.

I am convinced that the promoters of the bill intended in this section to provide for the coinage of the bullion constituting the gain of seigniorage, as it is called into standard silver dollars, and yet there is positively nothing in the section to prevent its coinage into any description of silver coins now authorized under any existing law.

Doubts also arise as to the meaning and construction of the second section of the bill. If the silver dollars therein directed to be coined are, as the section provides, to be held in the treasury for the redemption of treasury notes, it is suggested that, strictly speaking, certificates cannot be issued on such coin in the manner now provided by law, because these dollars are money held in the treasury for the express purpose of redeeming treasury notes, on demand, which would ordinarily mean that they were set apart for the purpose of substituting them for the treasury notes.

I am convinced that this scheme is ill advised and dangerous. As an ultimate result of its operations treasury notes, which are legal tender for all debts, public and private, and which are redeemable in gold or silver, at the option of the holder, will be replaced by silver certificates, which, whatever may be their character and description, will have none of these qualities.

We have now outstanding more than $35,000,000 of silver certificates issued under existing laws. They are serving the purpose of money usefully and without question. Our gold reserve, amounting to only a little more than $100,000,000, is directly charged with the redemption of $346,000,000 of United States notes.

When it is proposed to inflate our silver currency it is thus for strengthening our gold reserve, instead of depleting it.

I cannot conceive of a longer step towards silver money than we take when we spend our gold to buy silver certificates for circulation, especially in view of the practical difficulties surrounding the redemption of our gold.

This leads me to earnestly present the desirability of granting to the secretary of the treasury the power to now exist to issue bonds to protect our gold reserve when, for any reason, it should be necessary.

Our currency is in such a confused condition, and our financial affairs are so unsettled at any time so critical a position that it seems to me such a course is dictated by ordinary prudence.

I am not in-entitled to the arguments in favor of coining the bullion silver coins; now in the treasury, and I believe it could be done safely and with advantage, if the secretary of the treasury had the power to issue bonds at a low rate of interest under authority in substitution of that now existing and better suited to the protection of the treasury.

I hope a way will present itself in the near future for the adjustment of our

DAILY ARGUS.

C. MACARDELL.
PUBLISHER.GEORGE H. THOMPSON. - Editor
J. F. ROBINSON. - City Editor
A. T. NICKERSON. - Business Manager

FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1904

A free silver change rider to the Wilson bill is the latest scheme of the silverites for getting even with the President for his veto of the Seigniorage bill.

Howard S. Long, the installment goods agent who met Lydia Brown at Tribuna, O., yesterday, for the first time, and married her half an hour later, did not do his wooing on the installment plan.

Ex-Judge Sutherland, formerly of Gravesend, now of Montreal, Can., has been talking to a New York Herald reporter concerning his conviction. He was particularly bitter against political friends, who not only deserted him in his hour of trouble, but even joined in the crusade against him, and savagely denounced the Republicans who used him in 1888, and who now raise a pharisaical clamor against the same corrupt practices by which they then profited.

Grave political complications may result from the veto of the Bland bill, for many southern and western representatives, who believe in silver as a panacea for financial and business ills and as a certain restorer of national prosperity, are very angry and may try to smash things. No matter what happens, the President has but done his duty. He has stood firmly by the old Democratic doctrine of a sound and stable currency. A less courageous or a less honest man might have faltered and conceded something to the silver enthusiasts, but Mr. Cleveland isn't of the Harrison type and has no use for makeshifts.

The appointment of Speaker Cripps as United States Senator from the State of Georgia in place of the late Senator Colquitt, is said by the silverites to have been made by Gov. Northern as a "rebutte" to President Cleveland for his veto of the Seigniorage bill. Mr. Cripps's sympathy with the cause of free silver is well known, but he is a man of character and ability, an earnest advocate of tariff reform, and holds sound views on nearly all public questions. He has presided over the House with dignity and fairness, and has fairly earned promotion to the Senate. When the Governor of a State bestows the highest honor in his gift on his State's foremost citizen, he has done the right and natural thing, and only silver-crazed cranks can see in such an appointment a "rebutte" to the President.

A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY

From the Geneva Gazette.

A family that can turn out fifty-four Democrats on occasion should certainly have consideration when one comes out for office, and the other fifty-three back him up. A document has just been handed into the Post Office Department which testifies to this remarkable family and political harmony. It is on behalf of a candidate for the postmasterhip of Bradford, Fayette county, Pa. The applicant is Walter Stilwagen, and he is endorsed by fifty-three Democrats all bearing the name of Stilwagen, and evidently his relatives. Among them are representatives of almost every vocation, from physicians and ministers of the gospel down to laborers.

MR. DREW'S PLAYERS.

Miss Turner and company in "Our Bessie."

The Norristown Herald of Feb. 16th, says: A very pleasing performance of "Our Bessie," was given, last evening, by Miss Turner and her company of amateur players. Miss Turner is a charming actress, and as Bessie won the audience from her first entrance on the stage. Mr. Drew, as Jack Melbourne, and G. W. Harbison as Gibson La Rue did good work, as did also John P. Carroll as Pat McGuffin, J. P. Clark was all that the character of Tom Hunter, the mine owner, called for. Miss Emma Whittle carefully handled the part of Mrs. Malley, and Florence Girard was satisfactory as Lillian Hunter. The rest of the company gave the usual good support. At the Casino, all next week.

The Grip.

An experience with this disease during all its past epidemics, warrants the bold claim that Dr. King's New Discovery will positively cure each and every case if taken in time, and it takes the ordinary care to avoid exposure. Another thing has been proven, that those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery, escape the many troubles that attend recovery from this disease. By all means get a bottle. It is guaranteed, and money will be refunded if no good results follow its use. Sold by McMonaghe & Rogers.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH

THE BRECKINRIDGE TRIAL.

The Defendant Continues His Testimony—Says Plaintiff Proposed Their Going to Sarah Gess's.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Congressman Breckinridge continued his testimony, to-day. A great crowd was present. Miss Pollard entered the court room exactly on time.

Mr. Butterworth started the proceedings by showing the defendant the little decorative basket, belonging to his deceased wife, which the plaintiff claims was given her by Breckinridge. He denied that he gave it to Miss Pollard and said he had no knowledge as to how the basket came into her possession.

Coming down to August 2nd, 1884, the day after the carriage ride, Col Breckinridge said he met the plaintiff in a car on the train for Lexington. He spoke to her and the conversation resulted in an arrangement to meet that evening in Lexington at the house of the colored woman Gess. Plaintiff had named Sarah Gess herself. Witness expressed surprise that plaintiff knew of such a place, and she said she had gone there on one occasion with Rhodes. Witness then told of his going to the assignment house in Lexington with the plaintiff. This part of the story was substantially the same as that told by Miss Pollard.

THE UNIVERSALIST LECTURE.

A Party Good Address, but Not To Be the Expectations of the Audience.

Rev. Mr. Bolles, of the Universalist Church, delivered an address at the Assembly Rooms, last evening.

The attendance was not as large as at some of the first meetings, for the reason that the Universalists have not come up to the expectations of those who wanted to hear their side of the controversy on the existence of a hell.

The speakers have all been good ones, but they have lacked the "vim" that was expected of them.

MORE PATERNALISM.

State Examination and Licensing of Locomotive Engineers, Firemen and Hostlers Proposed.

By United Press.

ALBANY, March 30.—A bill introduced in the Assembly by Mr. Coughlin, to-day, provides for the examination and licensing of locomotive engineers, firemen and hostlers. The bill provides for the appointment of a chief examiner and five deputies by the Governor. The deputies must have had five years' experience as locomotive engineers. It fixes license fees at from two to five dollars and provides for fines of twenty-five dollars for any unlicensed engineer, fireman or hostler found working on any railroad three months after the passage of the bill.

A FORTY-ONE ROUND FIGHT.

A Long and Hard Fought Contest Declared a Draw.

By United Press

MINNEAPOLIS, March 30.—John Van Heest and Oscar Gardner, the "Oma ha Kid," fought forty-one rounds before the Twin City Athletic Club here, last night. The referee decided it no contest, and all bets were declared off.

The men fought at 132 pounds, and it was give and take for twenty rounds, first one and then the other having the advantage. In the twenty-fourth round both men agreed to a draw, but the club wanted a decision and the men were ordered to continue, but both men were too weak to do any effective work after that round.

THE MARCH OF COXEY'S ARMY

By United Press.

COLUMBIA, O., March 30.—Coxey's army moved, this morning, en route to East Palestine. The weather is fine. No further reports of sickness were made, this morning. Organized elements at once excluded from the camp. The army left here 200 strong.

HAVEN'T PETITIONED FOR BRECKINRIDGE'S IMPEACHMENT.

By United Press.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 30.—The women whose names have been mentioned as having signed a petition to Congress to impeach W. O. P. Breckinridge, indignantly deny that they have signed such a paper.

Mrs. Frank K. Hunt said she had not signed such a petition, but she would do so if it was presented to her.

TWENTY YEARS FOR MURDER.

By United Press.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Timothy McDermott, the slayer of George Cheney, a brother of Congressman Clacy, was sentenced by Judge Moore, of Brooklyn, this morning, to Sing Sing for twenty years.

A RAILROAD COMPANY'S THREAT.

By United Press.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Long Island R. R. Co., owing to the passage of the two cent mileage bill, gives notice that if the bill becomes a law it will abolish commutation rates.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS SUMMARY

By United Press.

—Elwin Miner was, to-day, appointed postmaster at Beaverville, Sullivan county.

—The New York police have been notified of the arrest in Chicago, of Herman Clark, the absconding member of the bursted stock brokerage firm of Hunter, Clark & Jacobs.

—The New York agents of the North German Lloyd Steamship Line express no anxiety for the steamer Ems, which is three days overdue.

—Robert King, in a letter to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions says that great distress prevails in Liberia.

—General L. B. Frye and his United States Industrial army of six hundred men arrived in San Antonio, this morning.

—Part of the remains of another victim of the Gaylord mine disaster was found, this morning.

ONLY $2 A YEAR.

For the Semi-Weekly Mercury and Weekly World.

The most valuable paper that comes to this office is the New York World. Fearless and independent, working at all times for the best interests of the people, and never for the selfish ends of any ring or individual, supporting the right and condemning the wrong wherever found, it becomes a great power for good throughout the land. Its policy is defined by its well-known motto: "Equal Rights to All, Special Favors to None." The reputation of the Weekly World as an incomparable newspaper is fully established. It reaches for the very best and latest news of the entire country, and gets it. The celebrated "Tariff Mule" articles are again running in their weekly and are creating widespread attention. Its miscellaneous pages are replete with articles of valuable and interesting information to every one. It is a large 12-page, 8-column paper for only $2 a year. We have succeeded in making special arrangements by which we can furnish the Mercury and the Weekly World one year both for only $2. Address

THE MERCURY,
Middletown, N. Y.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE REPORT

GEO. J. YOCUM, Commission Broker, Stern Building, 15 North Street, Middletown, N. Y. Stocks, Bonds, Grain and Provisions bought and sold for cash or carried on margin.

	High	Low	Close
A. T. & S. F.	15 1/2	14 1/2	15 1/2
C. E. & F.	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
D. L. & F.	4 1/2	4 1/2	4 1/2
Ch. & N. Y.	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
Central Electric	4 1/2	4 1/2	4 1/2
D. & C. F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
C. & S. F.	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
D. & C. F.	10 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/2
E. & F.	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2
F. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
G. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
H. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
I. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
J. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
K. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
L. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
M. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
N. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
O. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
P. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
Q. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
R. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
S. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
T. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
U. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
V. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
W. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
X. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
Y. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2
Z. & F.	2 1/2	2 1/2	2 1/2

HARRIED.

OUTWATER-DICKERMAN—At Port Jervis, March 28th, '94, by Rev. Wm. Hudson, Harry S. Outwater and Lizzy May Dickerman, both of Port Jervis.

O'DOWD-MAHAN—At Montgomery, March 28th, '94, by Rev. Father Meredith, Patrick O'Dowd and Minnie Mahan, both of Steady Ford.

TILLEY-TILLEY—In this city, March 28th, '94, by Rev. Wm. A. Robinson, D. D., Lawrence James Tyler and Mrs. Mary A. Tyler, both of Middletown.

DIED.

COOPER—At Old City, Pa., March 27th, '94, Dr. Charles A. Cooper, aged about 70 years. Interment at the Grove Cemetery, near Deck town.

HORNBECK—Near Westtown, March 28th, '94, ex-Sheriff J. E. Hornbeck, of Sussex county, N. J.

RINGER—At Westfield, N. J., March 28th, '94, Mrs. Lizzie A. Ringer, wife of Dr. Frederick A. Ringer, formerly of Middletown, aged twenty-seven years.

A Timely Bit of Advice.

In these times of grip and pneumonia it is of great importance that we should know where to look for a safe and sure remedy. A slight cold may become a serious one, the scarcely noticeable pain in the chest is too often the forerunner of pneumonia. The first cough may lead to consumption (a cough is always dangerous). Never neglect a cold or cough for even one day, but get at once, as a safe and sure remedy, Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure, which is recommended on all sides. It should be kept in the house regularly to avoid delay when needed. It is sold at all the drug stores.

4.40

Cts. a Hundred

FOR

Granulated Sugar

SLOAT'S

Cash Store.

CARSON & TOWNER

ONYX HOSIERY!

If you are not already acquainted with this branch of our business, we shall be glad to have you.

You will find we carry the largest stock, and it is always right in quality, style and price.

Prices from 10 cents to $2 per pair. The best 15 and 25 cent stockings in the land.

We are doing the business in Spring Jackets and Capes: come and see.

CARSON & TOWNER,
No. 11 WEST MAIN STREET, MIDDLETOWN.

EASTER Neckwear, Gloves, Hats, Black and Colors, Dunlap, Youman, coaching and 5th Ave. Styles.

Silk Hats, Canes, Collars and Cuffs.

Merchant Tailoring Department is rushing with orders. Why, because we carry the largest and finest stock of Foreign and Domestic Suitings, Overcoatings and Trouserings in the city. Then, too, when you leave your order you may expect Mr. Rogers will give you the very latest style, while the fit and workmanship is guaranteed. Silk Hats ironed free at

JOHN E. ADAMS,

Leading Hatter, Clothier, Merchant Tailor and Gents' Furnisher,
No. 41 North Street, Middletown.

THE

"PADDOCK,"

The New Spring Overcoat.

If you are not familiar with this new spring overcoat, the latest production of the finest makers in New York city, we would invite you to inspect the same.

It is graceful, stylish and sensible. The cuffs are an important feature. If you are in need of a new spring coat, step in and try one on. The price is low and the quality high.

In all things it is genteel, such as a gentleman seeks—not loud.

Isaac Lipfeld.

25 North street.

Our Gingham and Calico

Departments

FILLED DAILY WITH NEW THINGS.

The remarkable values we are showing at 5 and 50c, force sales.

Our Muslin Department is full of specialties. A word Unbleached Muslin, full yard wide, at 5c, and all the best qualities at very low prices. We open to-day, a large invoice of

Tapestry for Furniture Covering at 50 and 55 cents, 1 1/2 yards wide. Our great bargain in

CHENILLE TABLE COVERS

at 50 cents each, is now on sale. We open to-day, a large line of Spring Dress Goods!

both in wool and cotton. Come and see them

H. E. Churchill & Co.,

39 NORTH ST.

SANTAL MIDY

These tiny capsules are superior to Balsam of Capilla, Cubeba and Injections. They cure in 48 hours the same diseases without any inconvenience. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having Opened a Coal Yard at No. 10 Railroad Avenue,

I would respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage. I will carry a full line of Lehigh and Lackawanna Coal of all grades, which will be delivered to any part of the city. All coal screened before delivering. THE DONOVAN YARD 10 Railroad Avenue, since 126 North street. Telephone call 15.

HANFORD & HORTON.

AGAIN A CHANCE

To close out several styles of Oxford Teachers' Bibles we cut the prices from $3 to $2 1/4, $2 50 to $1 50, $5 to $3.98 and so on. This is your opportunity as long as the books last, which will not be long.

When you buy Stationery, why not select it from the largest assortment in the city? That means you know. Our prices are no higher—usually lower, in fact—while you are sure of getting just the style you wish. Our "New Bargain Box" will suit you. Any initial stamped free on paper bought of us.

Hanford & Horton,
6 North Street.

TEN DOLLARS DOWN AND

FIVE DOLLARS PER MONTH

FOR ONE YEAR

will purchase a elegant solid walnut case

OR CAN

delivered free at your home.

Costless, of course, if paid for in cash but yet the difference is only trifling. Too little, in fact, for any one to deny his son or daughter the privilege of playing one of these beautiful instruments. It is useful and ornamental, and forms quite a prominent and attractive article of furniture. The Organs and Pianos we have for sale—cash or credit—are better than those sold at much higher prices by other dealers.

"Middletown Music Store,"
56 NORTH ST.,
SUCCESSORS to Wood T. Ogden,
Morgan & Wilbur, and The Morgan Music Co.

RUSSET SHOES.
Gents, we can show you the finest line of

FINEST QUALITY

Clover and Timothy Seed.

CAR LOAD

CATTLE AND DAIRY SALT.

No. 2 Mackerel 7c.

/ CTS PER POUND AT

South Side Cash Store.

J. E. CAMPBELL.

The Middletown School of Stenography and Typewriting

MRS. MILLICENT LAIN, Principal, No. 6 East Main street. Instruction given day and evening. Typewriting done. Terms moderate. dsw:mch30

WEST SHORE RANCE.

MILLSPAUGH HARDWARE CO.,

Wholesale and Retail Hardware,

CORNER MAIN AND CANAL STS.,

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.

WORKINGMEN, READ!

We can fit you out with service pants from 50, 75c. and $1, warranted not to rip. All colors and grades of Overalls. We have the lowest-price Overalls in this city. Carpenters' attention is called to our new Apron. We are sole agents. The largest selection of Working Shirts in the city at the One Price Blue Front Clothing Store, 10 North street.

MORRIS B. WOLF.

Sales Satisfactory

Our aim always has been and always will be to give our customers an honest dollar's worth of goods for $1. We never have advertised "Cheap John" goods at "Cheap John" prices, believing that the people of Middletown are willing to pay for what they get. If you wish cheap carpets we have them; we also have the best. If you wish cheap curtains we have them, we also give you a brass-trimmed curtain pole with every pair of curtains. We will not limit you to the time.

Our store will be open from 7 a. m. to 8:30 p. m., each day, and we are always glad to show goods. We have special attractions in most every department and prices are way down. Our spring stock throughout has been selected with the greatest care, and we want your money in exchange for the goods. Come and see us.

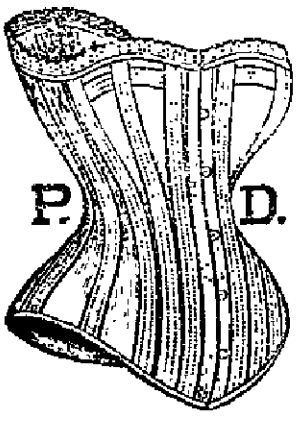

THE C. R. Crawford Furniture Co.

44-46 North St., Middletown.

The old fashioned way is, make them yourself. Then your label on them means something. That's the way we do. The other way is to buy them "factory made," and slap your label on. You might as well endorse a note without seeing the face of it! For instance, when we say our Beef, Wine and Iron is as good as it is possible to make it, it's because we KNOW it is so. Why, the wine (Imported Sherry) in it alone costs more than the finished product of some other brands. The same with our Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It's a true Emulsion—NOT A SOAP—and the oil is the finest obtainable and in just the condition to be readily taken by a delicate stomach. Then our Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic." We make it—make it from the actual crude drugs. We could buy something for less money, but the quality would be lacking. If we say IT'S OURS, it IS OURS with a record of 26 years to back it up.

McMonagle & Rogers, Druggists, 30 North St.

LADIES' FURNISHINGS.

This cut shows that most celebrated and beautiful of all French Corsets—the P. D. This Corset is, we believe, the best and most popular of the French Corsets, and wearers of fine corsets who have used them refuse to use any other. Certainly the manufacturer has reached the highest point of perfection in shape, finish and fit. It is made to give, as no other corset can, a graceful outline of outline to the figure through the tendency to reduce the size and give a lengthening effect to the waist.

We have them in FIVE DIFFERENT STYLES of White, Dimp and Black, all made of the finest linen cut.

PRICES $2.00, $2.30, $2.75, $3.00, $3.50.

C. W. FANCHER & CO., 7 West Main Street.

DAILY ARGUS.

OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, March, 30.—Fair, stationary temperature, Saturday morning, warmer in the afternoon; north-westerly winds, becoming south-westerly.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The following was the registry of the thermometer at Frank's drug store, to-day:

7 a. m., 34°; 12 m., 52°; 3 p. m., 53°.

AMUSEMENTS AND RECREATIONS.

—March 30—Mystery Reception, at Y. M. C. A. rooms.

—April 2—Lizzie May Usher and company, at Casino.

—April 3—Prof. Commerce's calico hon. at Assembly Rooms.

—April 11—12—"Flowers of the Forest," at Casino; benefit of Thrall Hospital.

—April 12—The Voice and Its Use, Rev. R. B. Clark, 108 Allen, Y. M. C. A. rooms.

—April 17—Lecture on "Artistic and Healthful Dress," by Mrs. Jeannette Miller, at Assembly Rooms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

—Car load of horses for sale by Frank Wilson.

—Fancy exchanged by mistake.

—Hoses called for and delivered by Crafts.

—Farm hand wanted.

—Cox by-lary from 10 cents to $2 at Carson & Toward.

—Families, grocers, etc., supplied with ice by the Middletown Ice Co.

—The new spring overcoat, "Paddock," for sale by Isaac Lipfold.

—Organs and box sets, or on installments by the Middletown Music Co.

—Sales satisfactory. See adv. of the C. E. Crow Old Furniture Co.

—Pair of gloves given away with cloaks, Saturday, at Geo. B. Adams & Co's.

—New styles in shoes at $2.50 and $3 at C. D. Hancock.

—$1.40 a hundred pounds for granulated sugar at J. W. Sloane's.

LIVE LOCAL TOPICS.

—California, to-night.

—Services will be held in Grace Church at 7:30 o'clock, this evening.

—Snow banks are still to be seen on the hill sides, adjacent to Housatonic, and many of Wayne county's numerous lakes are still covered with ice.—Citizen.

—Have you bought your ticket for California?

—To-morrow is the last day that the Erie will sell twenty-five trip tickets to New York. After that date only fifty trip tickets will be sold.

—Archbishop Corrigan, announces that he will confirm classes of candidates at Cornwall on June 12, Walden, June 19, Warwick, June 29.

—Messrs. Bright and Berg have formed a co-partnership in the musical business, and have a large number of engagements booked, every night of next week being filled.

—Judge Brown is expected to hand down his decision, to-day, in the matter of the claims against the State for work on the Armory, assigned by Lindsay Brothers to S. S. Purvis.

—Thirty-seven hotels and thirty-three eating houses have been licensed in Wayne county, Pa., for the year beginning April 1st. The county receives in license fees $1,368, and the townships and boroughs $5,250.40.

—Mrs. A. R. Pfaff, who for several years has had charge of the telephone exchange in Port Jervis, has resigned, and Miss Myra A. Ryan has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

—Mr. W. W. Carpenter has secured the contract for the proposed alteration in the residence of Mr. W. H. Smith, on Orchard street, the plans of which were some time ago submitted to the Common Council for approval.

—California illustrated by the Stereopticon, at the Casino, to-night.

—The Hudson River Telephone Company has just put a $3,000 switchboard in its Newburgh office. Its line to Chicago is now in readiness for use between that city and intermediate points. The line to New York has proved a great convenience to Newburgh, and from ten to fifty messages are sent over it daily.

—The chance to visit California, at such low rates, does not often occur. Don't miss the opportunity, to-night.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. Fred Woodward left on train 35, to-day, for Ithaca, to resume his studies at Cornell University.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hawkins have removed from their farm near Phillipsport and will reside at 25 Houston avenue.

—Mrs. J. H. Norton went to Matamoras, this morning, to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Madden.

—Mr. Harry Purdy, of this city, has been appointed an agent for the Prudential Insurance Company and assigned to duty at Goshen.

—Mrs. Mary F. Andrus, whose singular mishap was mentioned in this paper, yesterday, passed a very restless night.

—George B. Adams, the well known merchant of Middletown, was seen in Deckertown on Thursday. He accompanied the remains of the late Charles A. Cooper to the burial place in the Clove.—Independent.

—Mr. A. Decker, traveling salesman for McMonagle & Rogers, who has been confined to his house, No. 9 Lake avenue, for a week, by a severe cold and neuralgia in the face, is improving and expects to resume business again on Monday next.

—S. S. Gowday, Esq., is packing up, to-day, preparatory to his removal to New York, where he will open law offices at 275 Broadway. He will remove his family to the Westpools on May 1st, and Middletown will only see him when business calls him here. We can only wish for Mr. Gowday most abundant success in his new and wider field.

—Mr. J. J. Lawler has so far improved that he was able to walk out, to-day.

—The Port Jervis Union says that Mr. Jacob Gunther spent yesterday in that village, as the guest of Ed. Geisenheimer.

—Mrs. Amos Hall and daughter, Miss Lizzie, of Fish's Eddy, are visiting at the residence of Hon. Frank Buckley, on Highland Terrace.

—Mr. E. R. Simpson, of Paterson, N. J., and Mr. Bryce Simpson, of Middletown, N. Y., are visiting their brother, Mr. Wm. Simpson, of Monticello.—Watchman.

—Mr. Oscar Carpenter, the "sweet man," of Middletown, passed Tuesday, with his parents, in Monticello. Mr. Carpenter is one of the many Sullivan county boys, who have made their home and established successful business interests in that city.—Watchman.

—Mr. Charles S. Puff, formerly of Bullville, and father of ex-Superintendent of the Poor E. S. Puff, and Mr. C. V. Puff, of this city, is lying very low at the residence of his son-in-law, Granville Stevens, at No. 57 Sprague avenue. He is suffering from softening of the brain and is not expected to survive many hours.

HYMENEAL.

Martine—Conkling.

There was an interesting matrimonial event at the residence of ex-Alderman J. H. Conkling, on Fulton street, last evening, when his daughter, Miss Alice, was married to Mr. Emil Martine, the well known painter.

The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock, in the presence of about 150 friends, by Rev. F. A. Heath, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The house was handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens.

Miss Mamie Bodine was the bridesmaid and Mr. Gabriel Conkling, of Johnson, a cousin of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Martine led the way to the dining room where an elegant supper was served, and they then were driven to the Erie depot and took the Wells-Fargo train for New York.

After a short wedding tour they will take up their residence in this city.

The bride received many handsome presents from their friends.

The bride's dress was of white henrietta cloth and was trimmed with lace and satin. The bridesmaid's dress was of the same material and the trimmings were of lace.

Thomson-Barbee.

From the Livingston Mirror Ensign.

Mr. W. J. Thomson, one of Roscoe's promising young men, and Miss Fannie Barbee, daughter of J. W. Barbee, one of the most popular young ladies of Roscoe, were married at the home of the bride, on Tuesday evening of this week, by the Rev. T. J. Carter. Mr. Fred Odwell, of Downsville, was bridegroom, and Miss Nettie Barbee, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride and groom were the recipients of many fine presents.

Mr. Thomson is senior member of the firm of Thomson Bros., builders and contractors, of Roscoe, and Miss Barbee one of Roscoe's successful school teachers. They will continue to reside in Roscoe.

A BEAR IN THE BARNYARD.

A Young Woman Arms Herself With a Club and Proposes to Do Battle With the Beast—The Animal Frightened Away.

Mr. A. D. P. Smith, of South Centerville, was in town, to-day, and told a bear story that would do credit to Pike county, in Pennsylvania. Mr. Smith says that a few days ago, he was attracted by the cries of Miss Ella Morrison, who lives on the opposite side of the roadway. She told him there was a bear in the barnyard and showed him a club, with which she said she intended to attack it. Mr. Smith advised her to let the bear alone, saying she would find the fellow a most accomplished boxer.

The bear paid no attention to Miss Morrison, except to increase his speed when she made for him with her club, and soon disappeared in the woods.

Mr. Smith and several other persons started in pursuit of the bear but could not find it. It is estimated that the bear would weigh 400 pounds.

Miss Morrison, who tackled the bear with a club, is the young lady who won the purse as the best lady driver at the horse fair on the Campbell track, last fall.

Newburgh's Electric Railroad Franchise Granted.

Newburgh's Common Council, last night, granted the company, which recently purchased the street railroad in that city, permission to change its motive power from horses to electricity. The franchise provides for a double track on Broadway, and gives the right to erect poles in the centre of the street.

"Hood's Pills are mild and agreeable and give good satisfaction." Mrs. Frank Stewart, Howells, N. Y.

The best Blood Purifier—McMonagle & Rogers' Sarsaparilla, "Nature's Tonic"—75 cents.

COMMITTED TO THE ASYLUM.

Jesse Coleman, After Threatening to Shoot His Mother and Kill Himself, Declared to Be Insane.

About 1 o'clock, this morning, Special Officer Wood was called upon to arrest Jesse Coleman, aged twenty-three, who had returned to his home at 215 North street, and demanded money from his mother, Mrs. Palmer. Upon her refusal to supply him with any more money, he drew a revolver, saying, "Well, I'm tired of seeing you around here, anyway," and threatened to shoot her and kill himself. She managed to quiet him and then sent for an officer, who took the revolver away from the young man and locked him up.

This morning he was arraigned before the Recorder and during the examination gave strong evidence of suffering from a suicidal mania. Overseer of the Poor W. H. Wood was notified of his condition and he summoned Mrs. Julia Brainer and Burke Pillsbury, who, after an examination, pronounced Coleman insane, and he was committed to the State Hospital in this city.

Mrs. Palmer said in court, this morning, that Jesse had threatened to shoot her on several occasions, and that about three years ago, he had shot at her the ball passing within an inch of her arm.

WHOLESALE GROCERY WAREHOUSE.

Contracts Let and Work Begun on the Skidmore Company's Building on Cottage Street.

Messrs. E. P. Skidmore and J. S. Hilton, of Newburgh, were in town, yesterday, and awarded the contract for the erection of the proposed new building on Cottage street to Mr. W. W. Carpenter, the well known contractor, of John street, this city.

The Skidmore Mercantile Company, of Newburgh, will occupy the building as a branch of their wholesale grocery house.

The building will be of brick, two stories in height, with cellar. The shape will be somewhat irregular, forty-six feet wide at one end and forty-four at the other, while the length of one side will be fifty feet and of the other seventy-two feet.

The material and construction will be of the most substantial order, the intention of the owners being to secure strength and durability, rather than beauty of architectural design.

The work of excavation was begun this morning, under the direction of Mr. R. O. Lewis, who has secured the contract for the mason work.

LADIES' NIGHT AT THE K. OF P.'S.

The Last Entertainment Until "Strawberry Time," But a Very Good One.

Last night was "ladies' night" at Lancelot Lodge, K. of P., and as it was understood that this would be the last of the lodge's social events until the strawberry season opens, the attendance was unusually large.

The "Musical Magnets" had been engaged for the occasion and gave a concert which lasted about one and one-half hours, and pleased all who had the pleasure of listening to them. The "Magnets" also played for the dancers until 4 o'clock, this morning.

Besides the instrumental concert by the "Musical Magnets," Mr. G. H. Hirst sang two solos; Mrs. William Remson and Miss Robinson gave a duet; as did also Mr. Charles H. Brown and his sister, Mrs. E. T. Lyon. A number of the members of the Mannerchor Germania, who have rooms in the same building, marched into the room and gave two selections that added much to the programme. Mr. Charles Purdy sang an amusing comic song, in which a well known gentleman who is a member of the lodge, figured as the victim of the joke.

After the entertainment there was achowder, and then dancing began.

Sale of the Ellenville Tannery.

The Ellenville tannery has been sold to Mr. Blake, of that village, for $10,000. Mr. Blake went to Ellenville nineteen years ago to work at the tanning trade and by industry and economy has at last become the owner of this fine property. Mr. Blake will operate the tannery on quite an extensive scale and will give employment to a number of men.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-formed to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Go by the book on Beecham's Pills.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

AT THE COUNTY SEAT

GEO. B. ADAMS & CO.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Entertainment by Institute Students.—At the Devil's Auction—Removals.—From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The students of the Goshen Institute will give an entertainment at Music Hall, on the evening of April 12th, for the Goshen Institute Athletic Association. The programme will consist of music, recitations, ventriloquism, etc. The entertainment will be a very novel one and will no doubt be largely attended.

—Quite a large theatre party from this village, chaperoned by Mrs. Fred B. Hook, attended the "Devil's Auction," at the Casino, last evening.

—Mr. Robert Ewing has moved from Scootchtown avenue to the Albert Knapp farm on the Denton road. John Welden will move into the house vacated by Mr. Ewing.

—Mrs. George Dennison, of New York city, is visiting relatives in town.

THE MYSTERY RECEPTION.

This Evening's Entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

To-night occurs the mystery reception at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms. A novel programme will be given beginning at 8 o'clock, after which refreshments will be served. The whole evening will abound in mysterious features. The menu provided is as follows:

The cup that cheers, but not inebriates.
Aqua acidula.
Chief nourisher.
Lactical fluid.
Stuff dreams are made of.
Thou art all ice—thy kindness freezes.

A snapper up of unconsidered trifles.

SIDE DISHES.

Like cynic's wit—spicy, but sure. An aid to (1b) digestion.

Real Estate Sale and Co-partnership.

R. N. Boak has sold to Charles F. Tiedemann a one-half interest in the Crystal Spring ice property, consisting of eight acres of land, five of which are covered by lakes of spring water. It is located between Genung street and the extension of Washington street, and adjoins the lands of Jacob M. Johnson.

Messrs. Boak & Tiedemann have formed a co-partnership for carrying on the ice business. They have a fine stock of ice on hand, and will be certain to please all who patronize them.

California Half Price Tickets.

The special attention of parents and scholars is called to the point that the exchange tickets to "Panoramic California," issued to pupils must be exchanged at H. S. Dusenberry & Son's jewelry store before the exhibition, this evening, as they will not be exchanged at the Casino, at the half price rate. As an educational object lesson on California, Mr. Ten Broeck's entertainment cannot be excelled.

Prices for Ice.

The Middletown Ice Company, announces the following rates from April 1st, until further notice:

Consumers of 1,000 pounds per week, fifteen cents per 100; stores, etc., twenty cents per 100; families, thirty cents per 100. These rates are the same as last year, with the exception that the rate for consumers of large quantities is five cents higher.

A New L. and H. Creamery.

John M. Knapp & Co., have begun the erection of a large creamery, at Tranquillity, N. J., and have contracted for the milk from 300 cows.

This the fifth creamery that Knapp & Co., have erected along the line of the Lehigh and Hudson.

The New York Conference.

The ninety-fifth annual session of the New York Conference will be held in Calvary Church, New York, next week, commencing on April 4th. It is not expected that there will be any changes in the pastors of churches in this immediate locality.

A RECORD BREAKER!

WHAT?

Our New 10 Days' Sale

commenced to-day, under full head of steam.

Brown 4-4 Sheetting at 4c.,
Plaid Glass Toweling at 3½c.,
Shirting Percales at 5c., from 9 to 11 every day.

For ALL DAY, full extra super-cotton chain Ingrains at 33c., extra Lowell Ingrains at 59c., only for 10 days.

Curtain Pole and Fixtures go with every pair of curtains for this 10 days sale.

Wall Paper on the run. Already duplicating many patterns of papers. In case of emergency we draw on our syndicate at Albany or Olean to fill orders at once.

SATURDAY, TO-MORROW, 1 pair 7-button Kid Gloves goes with every garment sold over $5.

We want your business, to-morrow, on Kid Gloves, Laces, Hosiery, Corsets and Fancy Goods.

The celebrated Watch Spring Corset, in white, drab and black, now on sale by us.

The grandest corset ever made. Step in and let us show you its superior points.

GEO. B. ADAMS & CO.

4-4 and 6-4 Chenille Table Covers at 50c. and $1.09 are big sellers.

Corns

Exterminated!

We have the remedy that does it.

OLNEY'S PHARMACY,

4 EAST MAIN STREET.

Spot Cash Brings to Your Notice a Chenille Curtain at $3.89

a pair that is unapproachable by any one. Look at it.

New Dress Goods. Silks, Satins, Taffetas, Surahs, etc., etc. Wash Silks for waists. 49 cents a yard.

SATURDAY, ALL DAY.

We will make a specialty of Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, etc. The variety is too great to quote. Prices, but should you wish anything in this line, don't miss it. Heavy Sheetting Muslin 6 cents, Elegant 40 Gauge Hose 11 cents a pair, "Centemari" Kid Gloves.

WELLER & DEMEREST

